About the place

Srinagar – The summer capital of Jammu & Kashmir, known for its serene lakes and Mughal-era gardens. Stroll along the Jhelum River or explore the bustling markets. A paradise of culture, history, and nature combined. Perfect for a dreamy getaway!

Dal Lake – A stunning freshwater lake in Srinagar, famous for shikaras and floating gardens. Experience a stay in traditional houseboats, surrounded by misty mountains. The lake comes alive with vibrant markets on the water. A must-visit gem of Kashmir!

Sonmarg – The "Meadow of Gold," offering breathtaking glaciers and adventure sports. A gateway to the Zoji La Pass, perfect for trekkers and nature lovers. The Sind River adds to its charm, ideal for fishing and camping. A scenic paradise just 80 km from Srinagar!

Gulmarg – A skier's paradise with powdery snow and scenic trails. Home to the world's highest golf course, offering stunning Himalayan views. The Gulmarg Gondola takes you to thrilling heights for unmatched panoramas. A year-round wonder for adventure seekers!

Pahalgam – A tranquil valley nestled in Anantnag, known for lush meadows and rivers. Gateway to the Amarnath Yatra and a favorite for nature lovers

Betaab Valley – A breathtaking valley named after the Bollywood movie Betaab. Surrounded by lush meadows, dense forests, and crystal-clear streams, it's a paradise for nature lovers. A perfect picnic spot with stunning mountain views. Experience pure serenity in Kashmir's untouched beauty!

Chandanwari – The starting point of the Amarnath Yatra, known for its snowy landscapes. A peaceful escape with stunning glacier views and adventure opportunities. In winter, it transforms into a snow-covered wonderland. Ideal for trekking, sledging, and soaking in Kashmir's magic!
